

My One Wild and Precious Life

Women's Retreat January 7-9, 2022 Miramar Retreat Center, Duxbury, MA

The poet Mary Oliver asks: "Tell me, what is it you plan to do with your one wild and precious life?" God has gifted us with one precious life; living it to the fullest is our gift in return. Although the unfolding of life with its joys and sorrows is unique for each one of us, all of us, without exception, can decide to make our lives a masterpiece. Join other women for an insightful and refreshing experience in the journey toward inner freedom. Begin the New Year with renewed intention to be all that you can be!

What other women have said about My One Wild and Precious Life:

The retreat showed me that I can do things I never thought possible.

Life-affirming, enlightening, restorative and inspiring!

Highlights were the mix of input and resources, fun activities, time for reflection, interaction with others and prayer.

This experience has opened my eyes to a new chapter in my life. Thank you!

The retreat was fantastic and amazing. I feel rejuvenated! It gave me a new fearlessness and sense of power.

Whenever women meet there is MAGIC !

Peggy Patenaude has worked for 50 years in the fields of education, pastoral ministry and spirituality, including prison work and ministry to women in recovery from prostitution and drugs. With her playful spirit, love of storytelling, gifts of creativity and faith, she continues to motivate and guide others in their life journeys. Founder of Taking Time Out in 2002, www.timeoutretreats.com, Peggy brings a great deal of insight and depth to her retreat work. After a long recovery from a 2020 Stem Cell Transplant this will be her first retreat in two years. Peggy is very grateful for the opportunity to continue sharing her precious life.
